Place the tiles out on a flat surface, dick-side down. The first player turns over two tiles.

If the two dicks match, that player keeps the pair of dicks, and turns over two more tiles.

If the dicks don't match, the tiles are put back in their dick-side down position.

Now it's the next player's turn to try and match dicks.

Play continues until all dicks are matched.

Now place your dick tiles in a stack and see whose is bigger. Biggest one wins.
