Terroir: The appellation covers some 86 municipalities in the Pyrénées-Orientales and 9 in the Aude region. The soils are mainly coarse granite and gneiss sand, along with brown and black schist and some plots of red limestone.

Tasting Notes: The robe is light amber with golden tints. The bouquet is powerful and woody, releasing scents of cocoa, prunes and grilled almonds.

The sensation on the palate is complex, powerful and well structured, with flavours of walnut oil, prunes, crystallised orange and vanilla.

The tannins are tasty and mellow. The overall impression is one of character and harmony, with exceptional length on the palate. This wine will be ideal with fresh or pan-fried foie gras, or with chocolate desserts.
