Keel Pendant

Oak - £145

Walnut - £155

Taking inspiration from the natural, spiralling forms that scatter our Atlantic tide lines, the Keel Pendant is a striking display of confident, modern design. Steamed in one isolated section, a wide piece of oak or walnut timber is arched by hand into choreographed formation and held with three brass rivets. Producing defined funnels of diffused down light, the Keel Pendant invites opportunity and looks particularly effective suspended in clusters.

Step into the wave, invigorate your interiors.
