

58-4110

Ultra-lightweight 18 Gauge Cut A4 PU Coated Glove

The 58-4110 represents the next generation in our innovative range of cut resistant gloves.

Delivering ANSI cut level A4, the 58-41 range is a new family we have designed specifically for this category.

Providing good all-round mechanical protection, durability and grip in a form-fitting 18-gauge liner, you no longer have to choose between protection and dexterity. PU palm delivers excellent dry and oil grip

Combined with the ultimate in fingertip touch sensitivity and tactility, the robust PU palm coating delivers good grip even when oil/lubricants are present. Wearers can switch from hand tools to small components with ease, reducing the need to remove gloves between tasks.
