NOTES

1. Afghan is worked in one piece, back and forth in rows.
2. A circular needle is used to accommodate the number of sts. Work back and forth in rows on the circular needle as if working on straight needles.
3. To create tidy edges on the Afghan, the first st of each row is slipped and the last st is purled. You can slip as if to knit or as if to purl, whichever look you prefer.
4. The Afghan is worked in alternating sections of Seed st and Stockinette st, changing the yarn color to make stripes.
5. A plain knit row is worked at the beginning of each section to create a smooth transition when changing yarn color.
6. Seed st borders are worked in one piece with the Afghan.
