PRETTY IN PINK

EARTH TONES

1. 'The hand-applied Clayworks plaster gives the walls a textural depth that fluctuates with light throughout the day. The penthouse receives beautiful light even in winter, so using grey and dark-fumed oak finishes throughout wasn't an issue.' GRANT STRAGHAN, director, deDraft
2. 'We wanted to breathe life into this functional space. The polished plaster feature wall is a textured silvery grey, which pairs beautifully with the natural Atlantic Stone and the Down Pipe and Pitch Black shades on the cabinetry.' PAUL WELBURN, senior design consultant at Roundhouse
3. 'In this home bar, we wanted to create a sophisticated space for entertaining. We kept the cabinetry neutral as it was a compact area, but opted for a statement tile-effect wallpaper in silver tones to draw the eye in.' EMMA DETERDING, founder and creative director, Kelling Designs
4. 'The soft tones of grey create a calming atmosphere in this bedroom. We opted for a beautiful floral wallpaper resembling hand-painted chinoiserie. The metallic accents add a subtle glimmer, creating a captivating play of light and shadow.' CHARU GANDHI, founder and director of Elicyon
