Natural choice

I love the tactile quality and pared-back look of the new wall coverings from Mark Alexander, including 'Banana Bark', shown here in whitewash. Coarse strands of raffia and banana bark add depth to the design, giving it a pleasing variegated texture that works well in a variety of settings. It costs £550 for a 7.32-metre roll. 01623 727017; markalexander.com

BENCH MARK

ON THE RIGHT LINES

Founder Bernie de Le Cuona's travels in Africa inspired Overland, de Le Cuona's latest fabric collection featuring 10 designs in earthy, textured flax, wool and cashmere blends. 'Tuli' linen, seen in nectar, is £184 a metre. 020 7730 0944; delecuona.com

COVER VERSION

Among the bespoke wardrobes produced by Rimadesio is this new 'Cover Open' design by Giuseppe Bavuso – a made-to-measure walk-in closet with an aluminium, bronze and glass frame. Offering a variety of storage options, it is available in six colours. All wardrobe designs are bespoke. 020 7486 2193; rimadesio.com

Wild celebration

New to Clarence House and part of its 60th anniversary collection, 'Panjim' is a charming linen featuring foliage and fauna. Suitable for curtains and upholstery, it is shown in the multi colourway and is £177 a metre from Turnell & Gigon. turnellandgigon.com | clarencehouse.com

PAST PALETTE

Morris & Co has now added a range of timeless paint colours to its existing collection of fabrics and wallpapers. Drawing inspiration from the rich colours in William Morris's distinctive designs and his 19th-century log books, the 40 shades are available in two different finishes – an emulsion with a chalky matt finish and eggshell, which is highly opaque with a low sheen. Both cost £55 for 2.5 litres. morrisandco.sandersonedesignaroup.com ▷
