SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

Join us at Olympia London, 1-7 November 2021, for a stylish and uplifting shopping experience beyond the high street! Discover an inspiring array of treasures, treats and wonderful gift ideas from over 600 talented designer-makers and small independent boutiques, handpicked for their quality and originality. From fine British craftsmanship and artisan food and drink to high-end sustainable brands enabling you to gift with the planet in mind, the Fair has something for everyone. House & Garden subscribers can claim a complimentary standard ticket valid any day, as well as 25% off additional tickets. Book at spiritofchristmasfair.co.uk, using the code 'HGSUB2' followed by your subscriber number. A transaction fee of £2.50 applies for all tickets.

WELL GROUNDED

Fragments and drawings have always fascinated the designer Ami Katz. She finds something appealing in unfinished works, such as a piece of embroidery or a drawing that has never been completed, and these became the starting point and inspiration for the creation of her Frammento design (above) for Vandra Rugs. vandra-rugs.com/. vandra-designers/munabrio-by-ami-katz

FROM THE PUBLISHER

Now that the longer evenings mean we are spending more time inside, it makes sense to invest in our homes: beautiful fabrics like those in de Le Cuona's new collection and striking designs by Tom Faulkner and Vandra Rugs will enhance any room. Bright crisp days invite us to venture out for seasonal inspiration – and what better way to get ahead with festive planning than a visit to our very own enchanting Spirit of Christmas Fair?

STYLE AND SUBSTANCE

British furniture designer Tom Faulkner is celebrating his 25th anniversary this year. Since establishing his Wiltshire workshop in 1996, Tom has become known for his bold contemporary pieces that stem from a passion for architecture, art and nature, and which are characterised by elegant lines, distinctive motifs, bold juxtapositions of materials and high-quality finishes achieved by his team of craftsmen. Exquisite and eye-catching, Tom's designs make a stylish statement in a modern or a traditional setting. tomfaulkner.co.uk

MATERIAL BENEFITS

The new Overland collection by Bernie de Le Cuona reflects the connections she has made with nature, people and places. Her experiences are expressed in appealing designs, crafted using inventive techniques into the finest linens, wools and cashmere velvets that span pattern and raw textures in heavy and light weights, in a palette of subtle, earthy neutrals. delecuona.com
