Meticulous handiwork

Bernie de Le Cuona has a passion for discovering unique artisans to work with the world over. Craftsmanship and fine detail are the trademarks of her eponymous brand, de Le Cuona, with its commitment to organic fabrics and lack of chemicals in production. She searches out uncompromising quality to create special things, designed to last. Look to the minutiae and you'll discover unexpected finishing touches like soft leather woven through the linen in place of extracted fibres.
