

Exhibition: Dance out

9 May-9 August 2026

Dance Out is an exhibition of paintings, photography and film that celebrates dance as an everyday activity, both solitary and social. Dance Out takes as its starting point the paintings of dancers and night club life created by David Remfry in London and New York. Painters Denzil Forrester, Paul Dash and Christina Kimeze find, as Remfry does, creative inspiration in the social world of dance. In a pair of short films Gillian Wearing and Tracey Emin give intimate insights into the subject, while film-maker Melanie Manchot explores the creation of a new, mass-participation dance work.

The RWA's main galleries and forecourt will host a series of dance and dance-related events as part of the exhibition, working as well with underserved communities in Bristol.
