Earthy & Rustic

An elegantly matured Bordeaux Superieur with surprising persistence. Named after the limestone soils ('palus') of the vineyards, this blend of 70% Merlot with 20% Cabernet Sauvignon and 10% Petit Verdot is showing lovely earthy, leather and licorice notes along with cherry, raspberry and blackcurrant.

A stunning value.

Pair with rack of lamb and braised fennel.

An elegantly matured Bordeaux Superieur with surprising persistence. The fruit is still holding on although half dried at this point. A touch of earthiness with a hint of brett/barnyard adds intrigue to the palate. Some tannic grip remains but it is well-integrated. Acid is still fresh and gives vibrancy to the whole. Good value. Tasted April 2018.
