Let's get into it!

Step 1: Drawing the Image

On the last page of this PDF is an image of the Owl for your reference. You can draw this directly or use the grid system to copy it using a HB Pencil.

Step 2: Painting the Background

Squeeze out some Light Blue in to the middle well of your Palette and spread it evenly over the entire Canvas with your Foam Roller.

Step 3: Painting the Branch

Take the #12 Angle Brush and block in the tree with the Burnt Sienna. Now paint the leaves with the Light Green using the small Round # 6 Brush.

Step 4: Painting the Owl

My Owl will be Pink, Lavender, White, Purple and Light Yellow. Paint the Pink on the body and wings. Then paint the Lavender on the face and heart on the wings. Paint in the White of the eyes and then Purple for the pupils. Finally add the Light Yellow on the legs and Beak. To embellish the Owl you can add the Pearl Paint over the different colours.

It's better to paint on two thin coats than one thick coat.
