Fresh & Mineral

The Winery of Good Hope is more than just a winery. It's an approach. An alternative way of thinking, being and doing. They're not into all the flashy stuff that's often associated with the industry. They want to make quality wine with a conscience. At the cellar on the slopes of the Helderberg Mountain, they make great wines using traditional, natural viticultural and winemaking methods. They're also fully accredited for environmental, ethical, and social-upliftment practices. That's why they call themselves The Winery of Good Hope.

This unoaked Chardonnay is an easy-drinking yet classy, affordable wine with more freshness, elegance and depth than commercial methods customarily permit. This Chardonnay has complexity and texture while still retaining the verve of the vineyards in Stellenbosch and Robertson which are getting older and more concentrated.

This product is part of the LCBO Vintages program. It may take approximately 3-4 weeks to be delivered.

Toronto Star

92 Points - Carolyn Evans Hammond

It gleams a gorgeous sunlit yellow in the glass, exudes bright aromas of orange zest and lemon squirt, then floods in with broad citrusy flavour. The fruit is saturated and pure with an almost oily texture that's perfectly balanced with lively, mouthwatering acidity. This wine is dry, vivid, and lingers for ages on the finish. Just a delight. Especially served with baked brie with some toasted bread, or fish and chips.
