

VISIT US

Chapel Down is located in Tenterden, in the stunning Kent countryside.

Set amongst 22 acres of vineyards, recognised as an 'Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty', the Chapel Down winery has excellent facilities for visitors including a two AA Rosette and Michelin Bib Gourmand restaurant and a shop stocking wines, spirits, beer and a variety of local produce.

Chapel Down offers guided tours and gift experiences. Visitors are also welcome to explore the grounds, the beautiful herb garden and vineyard walks.

The Chapel Down winery is open to visitors 7 days a week throughout the year.

Chapel Down is England's leading wine producer with a world-class range of sparkling and still wines.

Based in the picturesque market town of Tenterden in Kent, Chapel Down sources fruit across the South East of England and produces traditional method sparkling wines, crisp, aromatic white wines, delicate rosés and elegant light red wines.

Freshness and vibrancy are key features which we look for in our wines and English fruit really delivers on this, whether it be unique aromatic white wines, classic fizz, or a twist on a rich Chablis-esque Chardonnay. Balance is at the heart of every good wine and our aim is to continually surprise and delight our customers.

We passionately believe that there is no point in just trying to be the best, we have to be the only people who can do what we do. We want to be better and to offer a real point of difference.

OUR PARTNERS

Chapel Down is served in some of the UK's best restaurants and is increasingly available internationally.

Chapel Down is an official wine supplier to 10 Downing Street, is one of the UK government's Top 50 Food & Drink producers and is the first English winery to ever feature in the London Stock Exchange's 1000 Companies to Inspire Britain.

Chapel Down's award winning range of wines are available to order on the Chapel Down website.

