

Facet-7 End Table

FINISH > Matte White

Inspired by the shapes of naturally occurring crystals, the Facet-7 End Table is a sculptural design that functions beautifully as either an accent table or as secondary seating. Precision-cut panels are shaped into a unique geometric design, with faces that subtly reflect light to create an attractive, minimalist form. The design works as a standalone piece or in a grouping with other accents from the Facet Series.

To see all finish options visit
gusmodern.com