Artus Pendant Small

A fine birch dowel cage contains its blown-glass bulb within. Daring yet delicate, the Artus Lighting Range diffracts a mesmerising pattern of shadows, dramatising your space.

118 ethereal dowels are slotted into a laser-cut birch plywood frame to shroud an exposed filament bulb. Intricately placed, each illuminated pillar distributes kaleidoscopic, vertical shadows that mesmerise the eye of the beholder. Handcrafted from sustainably sourced wood, this small wooden drum pendant provides eccentric beauty to any bedroom, hallway, or living space alike – whether suspended as a single pendant or in a self-curated cluster.

Illuminate. Pack a punch. Draw the eye.
