Mags Sofa Low Armrest

The latest addition to the Mags Sofa collection, the Mags Low Armrest Sofa shares the same strong aesthetics and timeless expression as the other models in HAY's classic sofa collection. However, the distinctive low frame and deep seats of this variant are complemented by lower armrests that reinforce the loungy expression and result in a more open, welcoming space. Based around a strong construction with durable, high-density foam and interior padding, the sofa's exceptional comfort and flexible modular design make it suitable for a wide range of private and public settings.
