Design notes

The owner of this kitchen – Kate Cox of HÁM Interiors – created an unfitted look with deliberately mismatched elements for a relaxed and personal feel. ‘I took inspiration from country house kitchens and added a curtain under the sink in a rustic stripe by de Le Cuona,’ she says. Shelving opens up the space and the terracotta floor brings a Mediterranean touch. haminteriors.com

Nuts and bolts

Kitchen units with Carrara marble and Belgian bluestone work surfaces; and hardware; all from HÁM Interiors. Units painted in ‘Singed Red’ and ‘Pantalon’; and walls in ‘White Tie’; all from Farrow & Ball. Sink curtain in ‘Tuli’ (nectar), linen, from de Le Cuona. Sink, from Shaws of Darwen. Refurbished antique taps; and stool; both from Ebay

Force of nature

Nature's Opera, the latest range to be introduced by de Le Cuona, is described as capturing 'the quiet drama and wild wonders of the natural world'. It also sees the company, known for offering luxurious fabrics in understated colourways, work with hemp for the first time. Shown below are sheer curtains in 'Aria' wool/silk in calm, £195 a metre, in front of cushions in 'Carmen' hemp in jasmine, tahini, alabaster and shell, £225 a metre. The cushions on the right are in 'La Bohème' linen mix velvet in primrose, turtledove, nettle and fig, £240 a metre. delecuona.com

First class brass

British bathroom specialist Drummonds has partnered with the American interior designer Steven Gambrel on the 'Colvin' collection of bathroom accessories. It comprises a mirror, shelf, towel rail, bath rack, single and double hooks, a toilet roll holder and a waste bin, all with a timeless Art Deco look. Each design is made in Drummonds' foundry in solid brass and comes in a choice of nine metal finishes to tie in with the company's existing range. Pictured are a pair of 'Colvin' mirrors, £5,652 each, and storage shelves, £2,382 each, all in nickel. drummonds-uk.com

Mission control

Since it was founded 25 years ago, Devon-based bed and mattress company Naturalmat has been on a mission to reduce waste and have as little negative impact on the environment as possible. In early 2023, it achieved B Corp certification and its focus is now on ending sleep poverty and working towards absolute zero carbon emissions. This 'Budleigh' bed is £2,480 as seen in a king size, upholstered in bouclé. naturalmat.co.uk
