

VERSO WIRELESS WALL LIGHT

Tom Raffield

Product Specification

An ornate marriage of balance and light, the Verso Range is an asymmetrical wooden work of art that welcomes a fresh perspective. Forged from the Latin word to 'spin', the sculptural Verso Lighting Range calls back to nature and showcases the gravity defying, swooping motion of falling leaves in the wind.

Stylish, sustainable, and rechargeable. Looping to create eye-catching asymmetry, this beautiful wall lamp is crafted from one continuous length of sustainably sourced timber that soars around the warm glow of an exposed bulb to cast a blend of light and shadow. Cleverly nestled into an oak bracket, the renter-friendly, cordless wall light is perfect for soothing bedrooms, hallways and living space, without the need for hard-wiring. Igniting creativity within your space, the Verso design can also be removed from the oak bracket to become a playful, dimmable, table light, suiting a wide range of interiors.

Alight your space with art.
