Magnificent lighting inspired by nature's chaotic symmetry

Introducing Vekst Lamp, a spectacular lamp collection characterized by its sculptural, branch-like arms. Nature's influence on the design language is evident. Just like branches of a tree, Vekst is distinguished by slender arms growing like branches into the shape of the crown of a tree. Crafted from powder-coated steel, each branch is fitted with a bulb, which is surrounded by a sphere of etched opal glass, a detail reminiscent of newly developing shoots appearing at the tip of the stem. The bud-like glass lampshades are illuminated by LED bulbs, creating an impressive play of light in the almost poetic design.

In entirety, the Vekst Lamp offers an aesthetic distinguished by a captivating chaotic symmetry, similar to the one which can be found in nature. The web of branches makes Vekst take on a new expression depending on the angle from which it is admired.

Vekst comes as a dimmable pendant lamp in two sizes, a large version with 24 arms and a smaller version with 12 arms, as well as a decorative wall lamp with 3 arms. Vekst is a show-stopping design ideal for grand halls and spacious lobbies and is just as striking as a centerpiece over the dining table.
