They're hiding the eggs.
We can not peek!
Soon it will be time
To go and seek!

One by the tree,
Two on the swing,
I'm getting good

I absolutely love how many boxes these fun poems check off with my students. Reading with expression and the cadence of poem is such great fluency practice. Finding the rhyming words, drawing a quick picture to visualize the scene being set up with the words, answering comprehension questions and handwriting. For the third time reading, I have them "read to an audience" with me or a partner so they get practice presenting and speaking in front of a group. I also have an extra incentive for the kids who memorize the poem. Its a fantastic resource, I've purchased all of the seasons now and my students love them as well! Thank you for such a great resource!
