Camping

The tent is up.
The food is grilled.
It is time to camp,
And I am so thrilled.

Hiking and running,
I can't wait to explore.
I'll be so tired,
I bet that I'll snore.

I can read the poem three times.

I can circle rhyming words.

I can draw a picture of the poem.

students build fluency by reading the poem multiple times & color a happy face each time they read

Picnic

Written by Lauren Shirk

I went on a picnic,
And it was so sweet.
My mom made
The very best treats!

We sat on a blanket
And looked at the sun.
What a day we had;
It was so much fun!

I choose 4-5 sight words from each poem to focus on weekly. We use 1 poem for the entire week and complete different activities each day (highlight sight words, circle rhyming words, draw the picture, answer questions, etc.). I print the black and white poem pages 2 to a sheet and students glue these in a composition notebook. They are so excited to take their "Poem Book" home at the end of the year.

I absolutely love how many boxes these fun poems check off with my students. Reading with expression and the cadence of poem is such great fluency practice. Finding the rhyming words, drawing a quick picture to visualize the scene being set up with the words, answering comprehension questions and handwriting. For the third time reading, I have them "read to an audience" with me or a partner so they get practice presenting and speaking in front of a group. I also have an extra incentive for the kids who memorize the poem. Its a fantastic resource, I've purchased all of the seasons now and my students love them as well! Thank you for such a great resource!

Cookout

Written by Lauren Shirk

When school is out
And summer is here,
My family comes together
To celebrate the year.

We have a big cookout
With lots of great food.
We laugh, we play,
And leave in the best mood.
