These blend and read sheets became some of my favorite go-to resources this year, and my students loved them, too! I used them for whole group, small group, morning work, homework, review/intervention, sub. days - I even had students ask to do them just for fun! Thanks so much!!

I loved this resource. I used it over the summer for tutoring and it was a hit. It was a great way to review some of the skills these students learned in first grade and I can't wait to start using these in small groups this year! Thank you!
