My students love doing this in the morning before we start school. They even have a race to see who can find all of the words first!

To the right, the title 'Spy, Read, Write' is written in a playful font. Below the title, there are directions: 'Directions: Search for words in the picture, then write it down. When you find a word, write it on your list three times. Then read the word three times.' Below the directions is a list of 10 numbered lines for writing. The first three lines have the words 'rat', 'pig', and 'set' written in orange. The fourth line has the word 'cub' written in orange. The remaining lines are blank. There is a 'Name _____' line at the top left. A magnifying glass icon is next to the directions. Orange arrows point to the 'Name' line, the boy's magnifying glass, and the word 'cub'.

The main worksheet page is titled 'Spy, Read, Write' and is framed with a decorative black border. On the left side, there is a large illustration of a leprechaun's hat filled with various CVC words. A magnifying glass with a pink frame and a green handle is positioned over the word 'cub'. To the right of the illustration is a list of ten numbered lines for writing. The first four lines have the words 'rat', 'pig', 'set', and 'cub' written in green. Below the list, there is a copyright notice: '© A Teachable Teacher 2011'.
