I absolutely loved this resource! I used it with my kindergarten class, and it was a perfect fit for their level. The activities were engaging, easy to prep, and aligned beautifully with our learning goals. My students especially enjoyed the hands-on elements and interactive components—it kept them focused and excited to learn!

My students loved reading these stories in my small reading group. This was a nice change for the week before Christmas when the kids are so excited and it is difficult to start teaching a new week in our reading book. They were engaging and simple enough to complete with them. They read the stories for homework and the parents signed them to show their child read it. I gave them a treat if the book was brought back signed. They loved it!
