

INVIVO TAYLOR'S ROSÉ 2023

Founded by two Kiwi wine entrepreneurs in 2008 (the two mad fellas Tim and Rob!), Invivo is one of New Zealand's leading producers and our mission is to bring people together so great things can happen.

We have a down to earth approach and make products that our mates would drink and talk about it the same way – honest, down to earth and no BS!
We run two local wineries and manage over 400 hectares i leased and grower vineyards in Marlborough, Hawkes Bay, Gisborne, and Central Otago.

Taylor's Rosé is named after Cofounder Tim's son Taylor.

TASTING NOTE:

Electric pale pink with blueberries and watermelon evolving from the glass. The Invivo Rosé is a return to our Pinot Noir driven Rosé from previous vintages. This wine will not disappoint with a rich berry fruit palate but with great acid spine giving a full bodied yet refreshing finish.
