Summer Beauty Essentials

A summer beauty essentials blog in August? We needed the first six weeks of summer to make sure our recommendations could stand up to the famous DC humidity before sharing them with you. Summer lasts through September in DC, so some of you still have plenty of time to try our favorite summer beauty essentials!

Lani's Favorite Summer Beauty Essentials

The neglected part of my beauty routine in recent years has been putting on lotion or body oil (I love both!) after my shower. Even when I had time for real showers and putting on lotion afterward, my skin was never as soft as I wished. Now, with the new Emma Heming Willis line, CocoBaba, it is as soft as a baby's bottom! Although I was first gifted this product as an influencer, I'm now a paying customer. I believe in it so much, I became an affiliate partner, which is rare for me. I will get a small commission if you buy through this link, and you will get a discount!
