

Roll Rite Roller Grill | RR

RR-50
(with Bun Box and Food Shield)

When roller grill products are moving on the grill, they move out the door. The Roll Rite roller grill uses innovative oval shape rollers so product doesn't get stuck, and the textured surface grips the product to keep it continuously turning. From burritos to egg rolls to stuffed breadsticks, this unit ensures roller grill food products of virtually all shapes and sizes are cooked evenly and look appetizing to customers.

FEATURES

- Oblong-shaped rollers ensure food product won't get stuck between rollers.
- Textured surface on rollers grips food product and ensures it's continuously turned.
- Thermostat controls for front and rear rollers allow you to adjust the temperature for the specific food product.
- Evenly cooks virtually all roller grill products—egg rolls, burritos, stuffed breadsticks, taquitos, and more.
- Available in two different capacities—30 and 50.
